Infant Massage Education Sessions

for babies 3 weeks - 9 months of age

Research has confirmed what parents world-wide have intuitively known for generations:

Physical touch is a vital part of your child's development

In this infant massage education series we will cover many aspects of nurturing and compassionate touch including:

- Learning simple, soothing strokes that promote physical and mental growth
- Learning about benefits of infant massage for both you and your baby
- Finding out when, where, why and how to massage babies
- We also get to meet other parents and their babies

Class sessions meet once a week for 3 weeks Come join us for our next session series starting

Sun Mar 5 11 am Mother and Baby Source

3/5, 3/12, 3/19 series cost $40
